

Graphic Designer (Part-time, 3 days/week)

- Use your graphic design skills to make a positive impact on global poverty
- Join a dynamic team of passionate and talented marketing and fundraising specialists
- Part-time flexible hours

The Organisation

Responding to the challenges of global poverty in a contemporary world, Tearfund (tearfund.org.nz) works with development partners and the world's most vulnerable people as they struggle to feed their families, cope with disasters, confront exploitation and build a better future.

Tearfund is one of New Zealand's leading NGO's. This year we'll raise over $13m to fund work with 29 partners in 24 countries across the developing world. We are a highly-respected charity that inspires people to give, learn and advocate against injustice.

Our mission statement is: "Motivated by Jesus, we encourage Kiwis to act for justice to relieve poverty among the world's most vulnerable people".

Tearfund has a challenging and diverse body of work, including child sponsorship, anti-trafficking and exploitation, disaster risk reduction, relief and recovery, and community development via enterprise, water, health and education. We have over 40 specialist staff who work out of our Mt Roskill, Auckland office to support the growth and effectiveness of these programmes.

The role

Working with our Digital Graphic Designer, you'll play a vital role in Tearfund's Creative Services team by providing a range of creative input from concept through to creation that aims to inspire, inform, or captivate Tearfund supporters. You'll be developing and updating materials used in our campaigns, disaster appeals and regular giving pledges as well as taking ownership for the layout of Tearfund reports, presentations and communications.

Ideally, you'll have some or all of the following:

- A relevant graphic design qualification
- 3+ years' experience working in a graphic design role
- Experience using industry-leading software and technologies (including Adobe CC – InDesign, Illustrator, Lightroom and photoshop)
- Demonstrated success in planning and managing a number of design projects simultaneously and to time and cost constraints
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Experience with the Kentico CMS, or other web-based CMS platforms
- Experience in video and photography would be desirable
- A flexible approach to work and a willingness to get involved in all necessary department activities

This is a great opportunity to join a busy, talented and motivated team who are committed to continuous improvement. The role is part-time, 3 days/week.

To discuss the opportunities further please call Olga on 021 541 654 or Elke on 021 80 22 13 or to apply please send a cover letter and CV to work@tearfund.org.nz
